Information and Instructions on obtaining a West Virginia Temporary Electrical License

1. You must be at least 18 years of age.
2. Temporary Electrician Licenses will be issued one time only. They are intended to get the individual to work while awaiting the next examination date to obtain a regular West Virginia Electrician License.
3. Temporary Licenses are only valid for 90 days for the Journeyman or Master level and 180 days for the Apprentice level. There are no extensions, renewals, or deferrals for these licenses. Effective date starts the date that the Fire Marshal obtains your application for temporary licensure and will run 90 / 180 days from thereon. Temporary Licenses that are not being utilized for any reason are not subject to extensions, re-issues or refunds of any kind.
4. We recommend that you do submit your application for the West Virginia electrical exam at the same time that you obtain your temporary license, in order to avoid not being able to get scheduled for examination in time before your temporary license expires.
5. License fees are $ 25.00 for the 180 day Apprentice Temporary License and $ 50.00 for the 90 day Journeyman or Master Temporary License. These fees are non-refundable and are payable to the West Virginia State Fire Marshal.
6. Qualification requirements for temporary electrical licensure in West Virginia are as follows without any exceptions or variances:

Temporary Apprentice License requires the applicant to provide proof of either current enrollment or completion of either a US Dept. of Labor approved formal apprenticeship program or an approved West Virginia electrical vocational program of no less than 1080 hrs. Such proof must be either a certificate of completion of one of these programs or a letter of verification that indicates that the applicant is currently enrolled in one of the programs.

Temporary Journeyman License requires the applicant to provide proof of completion of either a US Dept. of Labor approved formal apprenticeship program or completion of an approved West Virginia electrical vocational program of no less than 1080 hrs and at least 4 years work experience in the electrical field. This requirement cannot be bypassed by having tested into a Union Journeyman Wireman card without completing the apprenticeship program.

Temporary Master License requires the applicant to provide proof of completion of either a US Dept. of Labor approved formal apprenticeship program or completion of an approved West Virginia electrical vocational program of no less than 1080 hrs and at least 5 years work experience in the electrical field. Such work experience has to include some residential, some commercial and some industrial work experience.

7. Please complete the Temporary License application form legible and in ink. Submit it along with the required proof of enrollment or completion of approved programs and the applicable license fee to the West Virginia State Fire Marshal's Office. Incomplete applications or applications submitted without the proper documentation will not be reviewed. Applications submitted without license fee will be purged within 7 days of receipt. Do not submit first 2 pages of information and instructions.
8. Please allow 10 working days for your temporary application to be processed. Should you not meet the qualifications for licensure, your application and fee will be returned to you with a letter of explanation.
