

West Virginia Fire Safety Summit

Friday, May 12th, 2017
Charleston Civic Center

The West Virginia State Fire Marshal's office is proud to host the 1st Annual 2017 WV Fire Safety Summit sponsored in partnership with the National Fire Protection Association, State Farm Insurance, Kidde, the American Red Cross, and the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission.

The 2017 Summit will be held on Friday, May 12th, having both a day and a night event; featuring topics on:

- West Virginia Fire Data and the WV Fire Problem vs. the National Fire Problem
- Public Education Resources
- Wildland Fire Safety
- Fire Sprinkler Education Initiative
- The Carbon Monoxide issue
- Statewide Smoke Alarm Canvassing and Installation Initiative

The purpose of this summit is to bring together all stakeholders who have an interest in protecting property and life from the devastation of fires. These stakeholders include but are not limited to: Fire Service organizations, Community Service organizations, Industry leaders, Seniors, Family and Children Advocacy groups; this summit is for all willing and able to learn, share, and network with others within communities.

Times:

Friday, May 12th - 9:00am – 3:00pm – lunch provided

Friday, May 12th – 5:00pm – 9:00pm - dinner provided and begins at 5pm; presentations begin at 6pm

Please Note: Only select one of the two time slots.

Call the WV Fire Marshal's Office at 304-558-2191 and talk to a Public Education Representative on how to make a "FREE" registration for May 12th at the Charleston Civic Center.
